

Whether you're a licensed psychologist or pursuing licensure, you'll find a supportive community where you can conduct psychological evaluations, psychotherapy, or a mix of both for underserved populations.

Psychologists - Join Our Team

What We Offer

Hiring Licensed & Pre-Licensed Psychologists

Candidates only need to be actively pursuing licensure to be considered, making this a great opportunity for those working toward their license.

Outpatient Setting for Better Work-Life Balance

Provide care in a structured, supportive outpatient environment, without the demands of inpatient work or on-call responsibilities.

Comprehensive Support & Resources

We provide testing materials, office space, malpractice insurance, administrative support, and office supplies at no cost, so you can focus on patient care.

Flexibility & Career Growth

Whether you want to provide psychological evaluations, psychotherapy, or both, we offer the flexibility to build a career that fits your passions. There are also opportunities to supervise or be supervised, supporting your long-term professional growth.

Comprehensive Support & Resources

With 40+ clinics statewide, you can easily transfer locations or work at multiple sites. A steady flow of diverse clients and referrals ensures a full and rewarding practice.

Whether you're pre-licensed or licensed, join a passionate team with more than three decades of serving patients with 60+ locations dedicated to empowering people to be the best versions of themselves.
